

THE PRICE & POWER OF REVIVAL
Lessons From the Hebrides Awakening by Duncan Campbell

Duncan Campbell was God's instrument in a powerful awakening in the Hebrides! Over a four-year period (1949-1953), he witnessed an extraordinary moving of God's Spirit over the islands. Overwhelming conviction of sin and miraculous conversions were commonplace. In 1956 the late Duncan Campbell addressed the Keswick-in-Wales convention. These inspiring messages were recorded at that time which accounts for their conversational style. It was thought best to leave these addresses unaltered so that the impassioned plea of the speaker could be sensed by our readers. One profound truth we learn here is that a God-sent revival must ever be related to holiness and real New Testament separation.
